JORDAN ALVARENGA

Born in Germany in 1993 and raised in New Mexico, I use my emotional experiences within the gay community as a catalyst for my drawings and paintings. STOP #9

SHARON ARENDT

I create abstract pieces using fluid acrylic technique on canvas, ceramic tiles of varying sizes, and glass ornaments. My work is both decorative and functional. STOP #10

MARIANNE BETTINGER

I create unique glass objects that are decorative as well as functional. Each piece of glass is cut by hand, fused, and either slumped or draped. STOP #8

LYNDA BURCH

I paint acrylic abstracts on canvas. I create collage art with mixed media using old stamps, maps, wine labels, etc. Showing at Amapola Gallery, Old Town. lyndaburch.com STOP #6

MARTA BURCKLEY

I delight in unexpected combinations of materials, textures and colors in my gourds and wrapped baskets. My art is shown at Yucca Art Gallery, Old Town. STOP #12

TIFFANEY CARDER

As a self-taught artist, I am inspired by nature. My style blends realism with fantasy to evoke the connections and emotions humans share with the natural world. STOP #15

COLLIN DELKER

My images are created using mathematical algorithms written in computer code. I reveal beauty hidden in the math. codeismycanvas.art. STOP #2

CHARLOTTE DRIVER

My art is an exploration of creating and capturing things that I find beautiful, such as nature, abstract design, color, and animals. STOP #9

CAROL ERICKSON

Creating books and journals engages my mind with ideas, my hands using skills and talents and my heart with love and joy for what I do. STOP #12

JUDI FOSTER

My paintings convey an outward expression of my inner thoughts and emotions reflecting the cobalt blue skies and the watermelon mountains of New Mexico. STOP #1

LINDA GILLIS

I am influenced by New Mexico's beautiful and ever-changing landscapes. I use heavy-body acrylics on wrapped canvas, as well as found mark-making tools. STOP #13

PAT GRAHAM

My jewelry incorporates a variety of stones, pearls, glass and metals gathered locally and from travels. Creating unique bracelets is a personal favorite. STOP #9

DEBORAH GRISWOLD

I create decorative and useful items, such as jewelry and crochet work, using reclaimed materials. A favorite pastime is salvaging yarn from unloved sweaters. STOP #10

ERIC GUENETTE

I am a abstract painter with large and small works. I paint mainly in latex, spray paint & acrylic on canvas. See 50+ of my current works at newmexicocreative.com. STOP #11

KAREN HEPBURN

My true passion is fiber arts, including felted soaps, vintage inspired hand-blocked felt hats, and needle felted sculpture. Look for felted wool vessels this year! STOP #11

GUY JACOBUS

My watercolor paintings are examples of my different styles which include portraits, landscapes and New Mexico landmarks. The watercolors I use are usually vivid. STOP #10

JONNA JAMES

I convey a strong sense of design, using vibrant color, combined with graphic elements, and complex patterns. My paintings express love for animals and the Southwest. STOP #8

RON LOHRDING

Using ancient math ratios, glass is cut, formed and melted together to try to create eye-catching and unique dichroic glass art. See at etsy.com/shop/LohrdingGlassArt. STOP #8

MARA MALNEKOFF

At Indiscretion, color is my muse and I delight in constructing wearable creations in different hues and distinctive materials. STOP #4

LOIS MANNO

I explore freedom and wildness using kiln-formed glass powders sculpted into feathers and other forms. Showing at Calliope Gallery, Madrid. glassbirdstudios.com STOP #11

NANCY MATTERN & MICKEY SHAW

New!! Mini-monsters for your desk or small flower pots, along with our usual wild critters. Please visit and enjoy the scenic walk to our studio. STOP #3

KATHLEEN McCAUGHEY

I silversmith precious, semi-precious gems, and one-of-a-kind stones, varying settings to enhance some aspect of the natural stone. Visit kmkreations.com. STOP #15

LAURA McINDOO

At Redbud Pottery, I create wheel-thrown and hand-built ceramics, both functional and decorative. My work is strongly influenced by patterns found in nature and art. STOP #5

SCOTT McINDOO

I make handcrafted, solid wood guitars and drums, taking advantage of the visual and acoustic properties of hand-selected premium tone woods. Cedar Hill Instruments. STOP #5

MICHELE McMILLAN

I am a jeweler and silversmith, inspired by texture and color found in the environment. I have studied silversmithing under several well known artists. michelemcmillan.com STOP #14

MARY ELLEN MERRIGAN

Handcrafted chain links add individual expression and intentionality to my artistry. Distinctive bead combinations and treasured elements create an infinity portal for wearers. STOP #6

MOLLY MOONEY

I enrolled in a textile arts class to fulfill a college elective. That's where my love of weaving began. I began Molly's Fiber Folly's in 2015. STOP #12

BARB NAHLER

I create my "abstrascapes" by stretching the canvas, applying texture with string, cord, yarn, or modeling paste. Next I apply gesso and then oil paint. STOP #14

RACHEL POPOWCR

My oil paintings, photographs, and linocut prints create space where symbolic and natural images interact, to elevate my pieces from the personal to the universal. STOP #4

JUDY ROSE

Vivid colors and textures bring energy into my art subjects, be it in my silver 'n stones jewelry or my pastels, watercolors or acrylic paintings. STOP #13

DENISE SANCHEZ

After photographing the flowers, landscapes and New Mexico sunsets, I then incorporate those colors into my beaded jewelry pieces. STOP #2

JENNA SCULLY

My jewelry is a combination of my love of turquoise and coral, along with my passion for creativity. I incorporate meticulous design and a sense of the Southwest. STOP #8

SUSAN SMITH

I blend bright colors and textures using fabrics in traditional block patterns in my quilts, which are fun and imaginative. STOP #13

LARS STRONG

Inspired by textures and curves, I create sculptural forms of wood and stone, revealing my connection with the earth, creating a one-of-a-kind experience. STOP #7

KURT WUERKER

I make wall art featuring copper as the primary element in design and am often inspired by our regional landscape or southwest design themes. copper-accent.com STOP #2

JUDITH ZABEL

My photography spotlights the wonders of the world and its people. It is my window on the marvels of our planet and its inhabitants. Visit judyzabelphotos.com STOP #7
